

Introducing "Gold Class" service and expertise at Sydney's newest imaging centre.

Now open at Macquarie University Hospital, Macquarie Medical Imaging is the most modern, comprehensive and world class integrated imaging practice in Australia. At Macquarie Medical Imaging, we have installed state-of-the-art equipment in each imaging discipline. We've brought together the most experienced technical staff of Radiographers, Ultrasonographers, Nuclear Medicine and PET technologists combined with The Alfred Imaging Group's expertise in subspecialist radiology and molecular imaging.

Macquarie Medical Imaging will be officially opened by Maxine McKew MP on July 28th 2010.
